D.W. MORGAN AGAIN NAMED TO ARMSTRONG & ASSOCIATES WHO'S WHO IN LOGISTICS AND SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT

California firm recognized as a top 3PL for the fourth consecutive year

PLEASANTON, Calif., October 20, 2009—The D.W. Morgan Company was named to Armstrong & Associates' Who's Who in Logistics and Supply Chain Management—The Americas for the fourth consecutive year. Armstrong & Associates has become a recognized leader in supply chain market research and consulting, and the firm's Who's Who guide is widely recognized as a significant resource for companies seeking third-party logistics providers (3PLs).

"The Armstrong publication has become an industry standard for companies looking for information on the top logistics providers," said David W. Morgan, CEO and founder of D.W. Morgan Company. "Our company moves critical inventory for some of the most high-value, complex supply chains in the world, so it's gratifying to again be recognized in this influential logistics guide."

D.W. Morgan combines its core capabilities in managing transportation and inventory information with professional supply chain consulting and innovative use of technology to find hidden value and efficiencies in client businesses and supplier networks. Through its unique combination of on-the-ground presence in key manufacturing and distribution locations and real-time access to inventory data, D.W. Morgan brings certainty to supply chains where on-time delivery is critical.

The 17th edition of Armstrong's Who's Who contains 944 pages with detailed profiles on 190 3PLs, as well as information and analyses on the latest trends in the logistics industry.
