D.W. MORGAN RECOGNIZED FIVE TIMES IN ANNUAL DIVERSITY RANKING

Leading Supply and Logistics Firm Ranks High in DiversityBusiness.com's 'Top Business List'

PLEASANTON, CA, June 21, 2010 — On the heels of its 20th anniversary, fast-growing supply chain management and transportation logistics firm D.W. Morgan has been named to the 2010 Diversity 500, DiversityBusiness.com's 10th annual listing of the nation's top diversity-owned businesses, as well as four other listings in their annual survey.

The companies included in the "Div500" represent the top multicultural earners in the U.S., ranging in revenue from $20 million to more than $2 billion, as well as a wide range of backgrounds, including women, African Americans, Hispanics, Asians, and Native Americans.

In addition to the Diversity 500, D.W. Morgan also placed in four other categories: Top 500 Privately-held Businesses, Top 100 Asian Pacific American Owned Businesses, Top 100 Diversity Owned Businesses in California, and Top 100 Privately-held Businesses in California.

"Diverse backgrounds and skills lead to better and more resilient solutions in the global marketplace, which is why we've been committed to a diverse workforce and supplier base since day one" said David W. Morgan, CEO and founder of D.W. Morgan Company. "It's an honor to be ranked alongside companies from every industry that share the same values and also achieve notable business success."

D.W. Morgan accepted the honor during a special awards ceremony at DiversityBusiness.com's 10th Annual Multi-Cultural Business Conference on April 28.

DiversityBusiness.com is the nation's leading multicultural business website and the primary resource portal for small businesses and large organizational buyers.
